

SPRING!

LOS RANCHOS

Growers' and Arts/Crafts Markets

FRESH GREENS

LETTUCE, CHARD, KALE, SORREL, SPINACH

LOCALLY GROWN FRESH

Saturday April 11th: 10-Noon
Tennis Court Parking Lot
(if it rains we'll be in the barn)
6718 Rio Grande Blvd NW

LET'S MEET AT THE MARKET!

Market tables may have: Chard, kale, variety of lettuces, micro greens, spinach, sorrel, mushrooms, carrots, tomatoes, onions, goat cheese eggs, jams/jellies, pies, spring plant starts, house plants, fresh herbs, dried herbs, culinary herbal mixes dried flower arrangements, burritos, pastries & hot posole, and more!

Info Table: market merchandise, coloring sheets, recipes and local news.

Arts and Crafts will feature creative and unique gifts including: ornaments, pottery, Japanese porcelain flower holders, bird houses, metal sculpture, soy candles, knitted and crocheted sweaters and afghans, painting silk scarves, handmade soaps, wood crafts, oil and watercolor paintings, jewelry, cards, dolls, toys and more!

May Highlights:

•Sat. May 2, 7 am-11, Season Opens, free seeds; Pottery demonstration by Rita Ryan • Sat. May 9, 7 am-11, Edible sprouting demo by Mary Moses • Sat. May 16, 7 am-11, Wild Salmon and Greens with Kenny the Fishhugger / Old Vehicle Day / Fire Dept. Pancake Breakfast • Sat. May 30, 7 am-11, Canine Celebration.

Questions?
 Call Sue: 890-2799

SATURDAY APRIL 11TH
10:00-NOON

Highlights

Plant Starts

Get Started!

Spring Starts from Moonlight Gardens, Mason's and Tom Fay.

Music

Rob Roman

Tap your toes to the Rob's great guitar music.

Goat Cheese

South Mountain Dairy

will have the first of the season goat cheese and milk.

Easter Egg Hunt

Los Ranchos Fire Department

Easter Egg Hunt starting at 10:15 am.

Business Spotlight

Featuring Alumenart Gallery & Gifts, 7200 4th St. NW.

Regular Market Season

Regular Market Season Begins; Sat. May 2, from 7 am - 11 am, and runs every Saturday through Mid-November.